

Caillouet

Joseph Caillouet left Canada and went to France, Brittany where he married Elizabeth LeBlanc [This is as my Grandfather Lucien J. Caillouet and my father L. P. Caillouet told me — when did the first Caillouet come to Canada? that I do not know — I remember Grand-fa (L. P.) telling me they were originally from Normandy, France. When visiting in France, ^{in 1954.} and going to Lisieux we saw a road sign Caillouet a few miles out of Evreux, my brother Bishop's Caillouet took the picture of that sign which directed to go in about a mile or so for a village of that name visited the church and the cemetery spoke to a lady who had lived there over 50 yrs. she said she had never known or heard of anyone bearing the name Caillouet — a little further in there was a Seminary — but the parish priest was not home that day and the Bishop being with others, whom he did not wish to delay could not take time to drive to the Seminary. In passing at Evreux, a large city — while stopping at a little store for coffee, I inquired from a clerk there about "Caillouet" — he said

yes there is a little village of that name about 7 or 8 miles I think - there is a Seminary there - of course Crecy, Lisieux is in Normandy - for me all this brings back to memory what "Grand-papa" had told us that originally Caillouet came from Normandy. True M. Caillouet 6/17/56

Now I repeat in order to begin at the beginning that I know the two first lines:
