Apr. Del. note of app'n for dinner & visit, signed by all 3 of us. — In Library, Catholic Arab professor ~~was~~ teaching 2 Sisters Arabic. — They wrote down the Our Father in Arabic & then dictated it for me. . . . 3:00 pm — on Beast of Rabennades proc'n — walked up to Jaffa Gate area — about 2 blocks from N. D. and stayed ½ hr. to see groups

— many military units, some including a number of women — march by at a fast pace, chanting, as they step in steps. Now and young boys & girls, youth groups, etc. Some with banners etc. . . . after supper talked to German couple from Darmstadt, mentioned Fr. Hajtas. They had been to Lourdes & were well impressed by devotion there.

From Virgin's tomb, go some steps down into crypt where 3 altars with painting above each tell (center) of Our Lord praying in the garden of Olives with His Apostles; (right) being betrayed by Judas; (left) assumption of Our Lady into heaven. . . . Coming out, ~~and~~ walking a short distance, a good view is had of the Kidron Valley which lies between Mt. of Olives + walls of Jerusalem. The Tomb of Absalom is in full view. We then pass through the Trinco Fata (Calim in bas-relief on each side of the gate archway. - Also called St. Stephen's Fata, near which he was stoned to death (tradition) - Up a narrow street to St. Ann's Church (O.F.M. Custody) said to be the site of the house of Sts. Joachim + Ann, parents of Our Lady. A rather small but beautiful church, restored in 1924 - Down 15 steps to room where Mary is said to have been born. - Statue of the Infant Mary ~~in~~ in a casket above altar. - Outside on the grounds - ruins of Probatica Piscina - pool of Bethesda - with the 5 porticos - when Our Lord cured the man who had been lame 38 yrs. - excavations here. - ~~off~~

Up the street to 1st Station of Via Dolorosa; Jesus is condemned to death. It is inside O.F.M. courtyard to right 2nd Station is across courtyard to left Paintings of the scenes. . . . Continued to N. D. de Sim convent + saw ~~place~~ location of Ecce Homo ~~balcony~~ balcony - only a small opening to indicate it. . . . in same convent an open mass near lithostrotos ^{with} last - pavement where horses were driven through grooved to prevent them from slipping. Continued + turned to right, away from Via Dolorosa to Damascus Gate. It was not crowded today. - Towards N. D. by gradual ascent. - ~~Back~~ Back at 11 a. m. (2 hrs. all told.)

To night, away from Via Dolomieu to Damascus Gate. It was not crowded today. — Towards N. D. by gradual ascent. — ~~Back~~ Back at 11 a. m. (2 hrs. all told.)
